DIB School
Course Catalog

Managing Corruption Risks and Building Integrity

Aim:

To Study corruption management methods and models and develop the necessary practical competencies to prevent corruption risks.

Program:

- Introduction, international and national definition of Corruption,
- Anti-Corruption Defense Index;
- National anti-corruption system;
- Modern methods and models of corruption management;
- Systematic analysis of risk management;
- Prevention of corruption and the role of civil society;
- Corruption prevention and risk management in the defense and security sector - ways and mechanisms of prevention;
- Corruption risk management in military operations;
- NATO BI Program;
- Corruption risk management in public procurement;
- Gender and good faith.

Learning Objectives:

- To analyse sources of corruption and its potential consequences;
- Study of necessary methods and models for corruption management;
- Analysis of international indexes, examination of effective anti-corruption approaches and risk management;
- Develop practical skills in prevention of corruption and risk management;
- Analysis of international anti-corruption practices.

Acquired Skills:

- Practical ability to to detect, assess, and mitigate corruption risks within an organization.

Teaching form: Lecture Course.

Methodology:

☒Case studies

☒Discussion

☒Lecturing

☒Problem solving activities

Duration: 3 days.
Target Audience: Defense and Security Sector Specialists, Mid-level managers.
Participants: 25.
Language of Instruction: Georgian.
Code: BICRM-2021.